

Abuse Report Process Flow

These procedures are to be followed when credible abuse reports are received. Violations which are discovered in the process of an externally launched investigation, but are not consistent with the spirit of the warrant, are to be rejected in favor of client privacy. If you require clarification on this policy, please contact the CSO. Abuse Reports that originate from internal Snort sessions will go directly to investigation after being reviewed.

